MRFF Founder and President Mikey Weinstein's Statement on The SCOTUS Bladensburg Cross Ruling Endorsing Christian Supremacy, Exclusivity and Dominance

Thursday, June 20, 2019

Today's highly fractured decision from the United States Supreme Court in the Bladensburg Cross case can be best summed up by the sagacious words offered in dissent by the magnificent Associate Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg:

"Today the Court erodes that neutrality commitment, diminishing precedent designed to preserve individual liberty and civic harmony in favor of a presumption of constitutionality for longstanding monuments, symbols, and practices."

"Just as a Star of David is not suitable to honor Christians who died serving their country, so a cross is not suitable to honor those of other faiths who died defending their nation."

"As I see it, when a cross is displayed on public property, the government may be presumed to endorse its religious content. The venue is surely associated with the State; the symbol and its meaning are just as surely associated exclusively with Christianity."

"An exclusively Christian symbol, the Latin cross is not emblematic of any other faith,"

"The principal symbol of Christianity around the world should not loom over public thoroughfares, suggesting official recognition of that religion's paramountcy."

The Military Religious Freedom Foundation (MRFF) will never cease its efforts to lead the way in highlighting how the egregious holdings in this case significantly contrast with the always tribal, adversarial, communal and ritualistic culture of the U.S. armed forces.

Neither the American military, nor the Veterans Administration (VA), are exclusive arms of Christian supremacy, exclusivity and dominance. In America, we do not judge the value nor valor of a citizen by his or her adherence to solely the Christian faith or any other particular faith or no faith tradition.

The dystopian horrors of "The Handmaid's Tale" seem closer today than ever. They must never be allowed to become a reality in our country and especially our United States military.

To that end, MRFF looks forward to pressing our current Federal lawsuit against the VA's unconstitutional promotion of only the Christian faith via the sectarian Christian bible currently bolted onto its POW/MIA table in Manchester, New Hampshire.
