MRFF Founder & President Mikey Weinstein's Statement Condemning Secretary of State Pompeo's Christian Leadership Speech of 10/11/19

Monday, October 14th, 2019

"Ladies and Gentlemen, we are witnessing a genuine rape of the United States Constitution!

The Military Religious Freedom Foundation (MRFF) decies the blatant violation of Constitutionally-mandated church state separation represented by the despicable placing of Secretary of State Mike Pompeo's "Being a Christian Leader" sermon, delivered to the American Association of Christian Counselors just this past Friday, October 11, 2019, on the main website of OUR United States Department of State's homepage for the ENTIRE WORLD to see.

This disgusting and repulsive prima facie example of fundamentalist Christian extremism, bullying, supremacy, domination, harassment and exceptionalism is JUST as illegal as the aforementioned rape or a first degree murder or a deadly and violent bank robbery.

Pompeo, a West Point graduate claiming to have been brought into an "intentional" relationship with Jesus Christ by more senior cadets during his time at the U.S. Military Academy (West Point), is purposefully setting a fatally dangerous example for the rest of our Federal government, especially the U.S. Department of Defense (DoD), the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), and our 17 U.S. intelligence agencies. MRFF now has nearly 66,000 DoD, Intelligence Agency and VA clients it represents in fighting such base, evil and vile fundamentalist Christian terrorism; about 95% of them practicing Christians themselves.

Pompeo should be immediately forced to resign in disgrace, and any of those monstrosities who support him should suffer the exact same ignominious fate."

'My walk with Christ': Pompeo Gives Contentious Speech on Being Christian leader

By: Eric Cortellessa

Saturday, October 12, 2019

(Excerpts from the Times of Israel/Emphasis Added by MRFF)

WASHINGTON — In his official capacity as America's top diplomat, US Secretary of State Mike Pompeo delivered a speech on Friday on "what it means to be a Christian leader" during a State Department event, prompting criticism that he crossed the line denoting the separation of church and state.

Addressing the American Association of Christian Counselors in Nashville, Tennessee, Pompeo emphasized what he deemed the main components of Christian leadership.

"I want to use my time today to think about what it means to be a Christian leader, a Christian leader in three areas,' he said. 'First is disposition. How is it that one carries oneself in the world? The second is dialogue, talking. How is it that we engage with others around the world? And third is decisions, decisions that we make."

Like a lot of people – and you don't have to admit it today – but like a lot of people, I grew up going to church but with a relationship with God that wasn't especially important for me, because I was destined to be in the NBA. (Laughter.) But as I grew older, when I started my time at the United States Military Academy, there were two young men – they were in the class ahead of me – who invited me to a Bible study. They were very intentional to me in explaining God's Word. And after some study and discipleship with them, they helped me begin my walk with Christ.
