Official Navy Recommended Reading List Promotes Books by Rabid Islamophobes

By: MRFF Senior Research Director Chris Rodda

Tuesday, August 27, 2019

An official U.S. Navy publication, issued this month, contains a recommended reading list for junior enlisted sailors (E1, E2, E3) that includes among its other books three books by blatantly Islamophobic authors.

The Navy publication, Explosive Ordnance Disposal Technician (EOD), is basically an instructional manual for how to rise through the ranks in the Navy's EOD community, which apparently includes being indoctrinated with Islamophobic propaganda.

The Military Religious Freedom Foundation (MRFF) has a long history of dealing with the military's promotion of Islamophobic speakers and authors, in a little over a decade countering a speaking engagement at the U.S. Air Force Academy by the the "3 ex-terrorists," a trio of self-proclaimed former Islamic terrorists turned fundamentalist Christians who were proven to be frauds, getting Franklin Graham disinvited as the keynote speaker for a National Day of Prayer event at the Pentagon, getting Jerry "my god is bigger than your god" Boykin disinvited from speaking at a Fort Riley prayer breakfast and assisting in getting him to back out of a speaking engagement at West Point, and most recently assisting in getting the U.S. Army War College to pull the plug on a speaking engagement by Raymond Ibrahim.

Mr. Weinstein,

Our pastor told us in Sunday's sermon that you are the nephew of Harvey Weinstein. He said that what Harvey Weinstein has done to rape women you have done to rape Christians. I even went on that Snopes website to check it out. Is it true? Are you and your Uncle Harvey still close? Does he donate to your MRFF? Just find it more than a little ironic that you try to hide that you and Harvey are family members. But it kind of figures given you are both angry jews with big mouthes.
