The Air Force Has Updated its Song to Be Gender-Neutral

By: Oriana Pawlyk

(Excerpts from Military.com/Emphasis Added by MRFF)

The U.S. Air Force is changing its song to be gender-neutral as the service grows more diverse and adds more women across its ranks.

Chief of Staff Gen. David Goldfein made the announcement Thursday during the Air Warfare Symposium in Florida, alongside Chief Master Sergeant of the Air Force Kaleth O. Wright.

Goldfein said the change applies to the third verse of the U.S. Air Force Song, sometimes known as "Wild Blue Yonder," which is traditionally sung at the U.S. Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs and often performed independently of the other verses.

WASHINGTON SENTINEL

Here We Go again:
Air Force Making Service Anthem 'Gender Neutral'

By: Warner Todd Huston

Saturday, February 29, 2020

(Excerpts from Washington Sentinel/Emphasis Added by MRFF)

The U.S. Air Force is un-manning its service song to make it "gender neutral" in yet another tearing down of both history and the readiness of our armed forces.

The song, written in 1938, was originally titled "The Army Air Corps" because the Air Force was initially an arm of the U.S. Army before it became its own branch of service. The song was later given the "imaginative" name of "The U.S. Air Force."

But, sure to trigger every left-wing, half-witted millennial, the song also contains lyrics that skew decidedly male.

If I ever see something like this again I will call the MRFF that very minute.

My family and I will never be able to thank Mr. Weinstein and the MRFF enough for helping us here.

with thanks again,

"Dog tags"

Mike, first and foremost my leader is Jewish, I love Israel and the Jewish people, those that bless Israel will be blessed, those that curse Israel will be cursed. We all are descendants of Noah, it's very simple to understand. It is easy to see after yours as well as your board members/paid staff "companies" response that your just a tiny little tooth on a cog of endless cogs, your the mouth piece for your master who controls the purse strings, [...]
