IN RESPONSE TO MRFF's DEMAND
U.S. ARMY's 10th MOUNTAIN DIV., FT. DRUM, NY
SWIFTLY REMOVES PROSELYTIZING VIDEOS
FROM OFFICIAL COMMAND FACEBOOK PAGE

“On behalf of MRFF’s 8 active duty Army client complainants in the 10th Mountain Division at Fort Drum, New York, half of whom are practicing Christians, we at MRFF want to thank the Army’s senior leadership for so expeditiously pulling those illicit proselytizing videos off of the official command Facebook page of the 10th Mountain Division Sustainment Brigade.
(Especially the one where a Christian Army chaplain exhorts soldiers to query God as to where God is during this COVID-19 pandemic)”

MRFF Gets More Proselytizing COVID-19 Chaplain Videos Removed From Facebook [4/20/20]

By: MRFF Senior Research Director Chris Rodda

Monday, April 20, 2020

The Fort Drum Chapel Facebook page has only 348 followers. The Facebook page of Fort Drum’s 10th Mountain Division Sustainment Brigade has 7,828 followers. If you were a chaplain bent on proselytizing, which page would you want your videos on?

You’d want those 7,828 soldiers and family members to get your message to “walk with God” while “asking God, where are you, where are you in the midst of this COVID-19?”

Since the start of the COVID-19 crisis, the Military Religious Freedom Foundation (MRFF) has been seeing an uptick in a particular type of complaint — overt proselytizing videos on official military Facebook pages.

These videos belong only on a chapel page, not on a base’s or unit’s main page.

[Eleven days ago, 4/9/20] , MRFF got Fort Hamilton in Brooklyn, NY to remove one such chaplain video , and we’re happy to report that the next video from that same chaplain was absolutely fine, with him apparently joining the ranks of chaplains who are putting out useful, morale-boosting videos that can benefit all. That followed the removal [3/23/20] , also pursuant to MRFF’s demands, of a so-called “Spiritual Resiliency” video, which was in reality a seven-minute Christian proselytizing video, from the Air Force Reserve Facebook page.

A few days ago, MRFF received complaints from soldiers at Fort Drum in New York about the videos of two chaplains, posted on the official Facebook page of the 10th Mountain Division Sustainment Brigade, rather than on Fort Drum’s chapel page where they belong.

A few hours after a demand from MRFF founder and president Mikey Weinstein to Fort Drum’s commander, these videos were removed.

Mr. Weinstein,

I am an active duty Army medical professional (I will get no more specific than that in order to keep my identity anonymous). I am also one of the 8 active duty MRF clients who asked for MRF’s help to get our chain of command here at Fort Drum to eliminate the posting of Christian faith videos from the command’s social media page of the 10th Mountain Div. Sustainment BDE here at Fort Drum.

My family and I happen to be of the (religion’s name withheld) faith and the posting of these videos by Christian Army chaplains was both hurtful and unprofessional.

And it was also unconstitutional. Not all Army personnel are Christians who would support these videos placed where they were before MRF got them scrubbed off.

And one more thing. As an Army medical professional fighting hard to contain and curb the novel coronavirus in our ranks I was particularly offended by the one video telling Army personnel that they can 'ask God' about His whereabouts during this terrible pandemic. Not on our main FB page NO WAY!

For my family and myself and the other MRF clients please accept our sincerest thanks for getting these Christian faith videos expunged from our 10th Mountain Div. Sustainment BDE FB page here at Fort Drum.

As you know the Army will always come down hard on its soldiers who go outside the command chain for help esp. when it involves the spread of Christianity as here.

If MRF had not been here to stand up for those of us who had no other way to protest w/o the worst consequences this would never have been fixed.

Please remove any identifiers from this email to you all other than my MOS as described above.

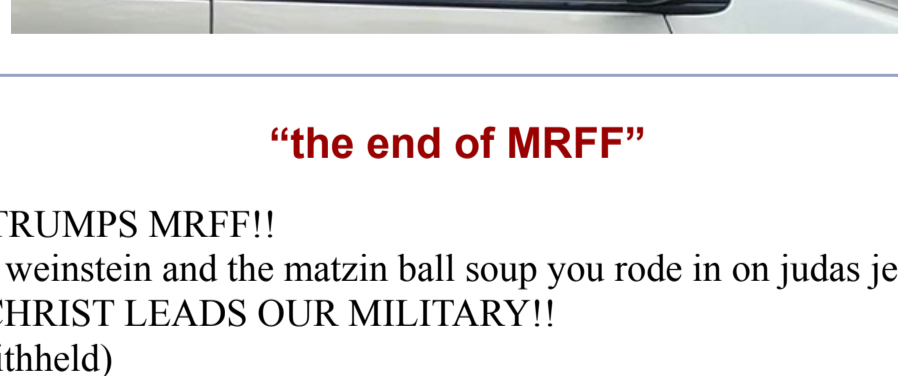

Thank you Mr. Weinstein and the MRF for carrying this fight for us all the way home to success.

HOOAH MRF! (U.S. Army Active Duty member’s name, rank, unit, title and MOS all withheld)
