POPULAR ANTI-SEMITIC CHRISTIAN BLOG ATTACKS MRFF; DEFENDS ANTI-SEMITIC NAVY CHAPLAIN WITH EVEN MORE EGREGIOUS ANTI-SEMITISM

So-called "Christians for Truth," a blog promoting a combination of COVID conspiracy theories and blatant anti-Semitism, defends anti-Semitic Navy chaplain, who, in an article published by the Washington Headquarters Service of the Department of Defense gave his take on the crucifixion of Jesus — The Jews killed him and should "Say sorry" — and attacks MRFF for getting despicable article removed, mocking all Jews with an image of Jewish boys crying.

Anti-Semitic blog post from "Christians for Truth" begins: "A Jewish-dominated anti-Christian group called the 'Military Religious Freedom Foundation' had a mouth-frothing meltdown recently when a Navy chaplain posted a sermon for Easter Sunday in which he quoted Peter's admonishment to the 'men of Israel' that they must repent for crucifying Christ," accompanied by a mocking image of Jewish boys crying.

The Military Religious Freedom Foundation group was outraged to find out that one Washington agency working with the US military shared a controversial sermon on its website blaming the death of God's son on Jews.

"Jesus lived. You killed him. God raised him. We saw him. Say sorry," US Navy Chaplain Lt. Aristotle Rivera reportedly preached to servicemen at a North Carolina military base ahead of the Easter celebration on 4 April.

What has surprised many and caused outrage was that the sermon was apparently posted online on 30 March on the website of The Washington Headquarters Services the government agency providing administrative services to US military departments.

Reprint of article from the Jewish Telegraphic Agency (JTA), a wire service for Jewish news, presents a detailed article about the posting of Navy Chaplain Aristotle Rivera's anti-Semitic Easter article by the Department of Defense's Washington Headquarters Services and MRFF's success in getting the article removed. JTA raises the important point: "It wasn't clear why an administrative services agency would post a sermon of any kind."

MRFF Founder and President Mikey Weinstein's statement on the DoD's removal of the outrageously anti-Semitic article

Wednesday, April 28, 2021

"The Department of Defense has accomplished Step 1 pursuant to MRFF's demands in remedying this atrocious act of officially sanctioned and validated anti-Semitism by U.S Navy chaplain/Lieutenant Aristotle Rivera. Now steps 2 & 3 must be immediately accomplished!...

Step 2 requires the expeditious & aggressive investigation and commensurate public punishment of Rivera and all of those who either indirectly or directly are responsible for allowing this hideous act of religious racism and fundamentalist Christian supremacy and domination to occur in the first place!

Lastly, Step 3 requires the Department of Defense to immediately issue a fervent and heartfelt apology to all members of the U.S. armed forces inclusive of civilian Active Duty, Reserve & National Guard, and veterans, as well as to the entirety of the American people for allowing this atrocious act of bigotry and prejudice to rear its ugly head at all!"

4/21/21 – Another recent example of blatant anti-Semitism manifested in our military & MRFF's success in subduing it — "Bagel Dogs for the Chosen People" Offered to Jewish Soldiers to Attend Military Boss's Bible Study! — MRFF's Swift Action Results in Anti-Semitic Military Bully Boss' Removal for Demeaning Bigotry in Less Than 36 Hours!

INCOMING HATE MRFF'S INBOX

"Like Shakespeare, I think you protest too much."

The facts of history will not be changed by shrill, explicit name-calling mrff members. History records that Christ was murdered FOR the "religious" men of Israel, by Pontius Pilate. Is that better? This is no more antisemitic than John 15.13, which speaks a truth I challenge you to disprove without ACLU angles of, "ohh, it's sectarian!" The problem with all Christ-haters, and whether you are an historic Israelite or not, your words prove you hate the Jews promised Messiah, is that you are so sensitive to the partial responsibility that 1st C. Israelite pharisees have for His death, that you cannot Not spew vitriol. That is classic over-protesting and it's based on fear. FYI, no one in their right mind holds modern jewry responsible for Christ's death anymore than we hold descendants of 19th C. Southern plantation owners for slavery. It's called history Mikey, and it is what it is.

Thanks be to God that all of the Apostles and most of the Disciples, were Israelite, Hebrew, Jews. For they proved the Scriptural adage of Romans 1.16 that salvation is to the Jew first and then the Gentile. ["For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to EVERYONE who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek."] THESE ALL received salvation from the God-man (from St. Anselm's Cur Deus Homo) as did many thousands of Gentiles, and Millions of both to this day. As the prophet Joel predicted in chapter 2, "It will come about after this that I will pour out My Spirit on ALL mankind [Jew and Gentile alike] And your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions. Even on the male and female servants I will pour out My Spirit in those days..." Joel 2:28->

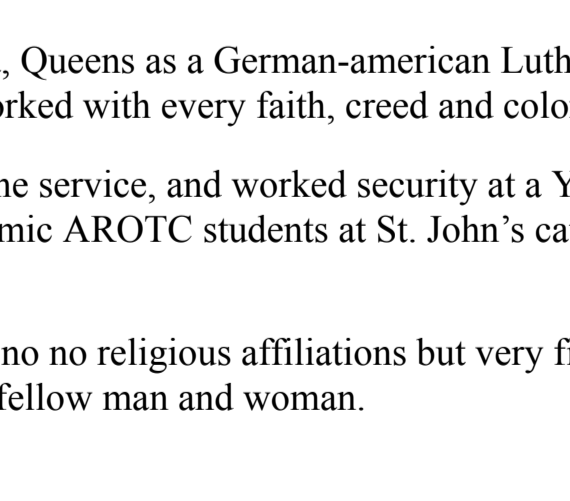

Finally, unlike the Navy chaplain, Christians KNOW that humanity of every background and creed put Jesus Christ on the cross, and that this was God's purpose for His perfect Lamb. (If you've never read the 53rd chapter of Isaiah, you might be interested.) Jesus came to die for all of humanity that will eventually come to Him; and my own sin crucified Him. Isn't it a bit arrogant for modern Jews to take backhanded credit for Christ's death? Again, all mankind is both guilty of transgressing the Law of God, and due the payment for their transgression, the second death (aka, the lake of fire that is never extinguished, where satan and his followers all are cast.) If one is not born-again to new life in Him, whether Jew or Gentile, that destination is the same. That God placed eternity in the hearts of humanity, is certainly telling on how humans individually act out where Jesus Christ is concerned.

Bless You Friend,
